Uncle Ivan Wellington Aboriginal Elder

"Warren grew up in the Culburra area near our Jerrinja indigenous community, we call it the water country, the beautiful Orient Point on the south coast. I was introduced to 'Wazza' as I call him, by Fred Borg years ago. Warren is a good family person that loves supporting charity and his community. He shares my insights into the needs of the multicultural people of Campbelltown and he is committed to working with them and helping them achieve their aims and ambitions."

John Scandalis NRL West Magpie & Tigers Hero

"I have known Warren Morrison for over 25 years and during this time he has supported many local sporting clubs and teams. His dedication to youth and the community through his involvement in local sport is generous and always supportive. He is a family man like myself and always gives his respect, time and loyalty to his community. With 'Wazza' representing us I know he is backing his community and backing his team, because that's the man he is. Wazza's got our back."

Mal Fruen OAM Chairperson, NSW Council for Pacific Communities

"I have known Warren (Wazza) for many years now. He is constantly working and supporting many issues in not only the Pacific but

Sue McGarrity Deputy Chair, 24 Hour Fight Against Cancer Macarthur

"I have known Warren Morrison for 20 years as a business owner, a family man and a supporter of many local charitable and sporting organisations.

His passion and commitment to making Campbelltown a better place for people of all ages and walks of life flows through everything he does.

I also am closely involved with Warren on the 24 Hour Fight Against Cancer Macarthur. Founded in 2005 by the late Cr. Fred Borg OAM, the charity raises funds to support local children and adults receiving cancer treatment at Campbelltown Hospital and the Palliative Care Unit at Camden Hospital. Under his leadership we recently announced a total of $4.8million raised by our community and best of all every dollar stays right here for patient care, comfort and education. His efforts to the management and success of this local registered charity is unparalleled.

I know Warren will continue to do an outstanding job on Council on our behalf as he has done over the last 5 years."
